

Bedford Model Engineering Society

General Data Protection Regulations - May 2018.

The above regulations come into force on 25th May 2018. In order to achieve compliance with these regulations BMES needs your agreement to hold certain personal data for you as a member.

Your data will be held in a computer database. It will only be used by officers of the Bedfordshire Model Engineering Society (BMES) for the administration of the Society's activities. It will not be shared with any third party outside of the BMES without your expressed consent.

The Society's preferred method of distributing information to members is via email. If we do not hold an email address for the member then it will be by post.

Listed below are the items of data which we currently hold for you:

Your name, postal address, email address and home and/or mobile phone numbers.

We need your consent for us to retain the data that we hold about you.

Please also tick each method below which you consent to the Society using to contact you.

Email Address		Postal Address
Home Telephone		Mobile phone number

I agree that the Society may hold the data items listed, and may contact me via the methods I have ticked above.

Name _____

Signed _____ Date _____

Please return the completed form by email to: datacontrol@bedfordmes.co.uk, by post to: B.M.E.S., Summerfield Barns, High Road, Haynes, Bedford. MK45 3BH, or by hand to either the Society's Data Control Officer or the Membership Secretary.

Please Note: If you do not give your consent the Society will no longer be able to contact you. As you then could no longer be contacted to fulfil your obligations in the event of the Society being wound up, you will be deemed to have resigned your membership.
